

Croughton Parish Council
Community Giving Policy Statement

Croughton Parish Council does not in general make donations to charities.

However, if a cause or project is identified which would enhance the quality of Croughton village life and the wellbeing of our residents, Croughton Parish Council is open to the possibility of giving support or receiving a proposal for funding from any community group. Support is not guaranteed under any circumstances.

Notes on Terminology:

“Community Group” is intended to encompass any group which has the interests of Croughton community at heart regardless of whether it has:

- charitable status or not;
- volunteers or paid staff, or both,
